

Camille Currier, MA Education

Camille Currier is the Executive Vice President and co-founder of Thompson | Currier, an employee-owned consulting company providing business improvement strategies to commercial, government, and non-profit organizations.

She is an Organizational Development and Corporate Training Consultant. She has 25 years experience as a Business Consultant, Instructional Designer, and Corporate Curriculum Developer. She is the former Director of Professional Development Certificate Programs for San Diego State University's College of Extended Studies, where she oversaw 23 programs, delivered by approximately 90 instructors and managed by 15 Training Coordinators.

She is the former Sales and Marketing Manager for a major training institute, where she was responsible for business development efforts that included assessing needs of approximately 100 small, medium, and large companies' for corporate training and organizational development.

Earlier in her career, she was the Evaluation Analyst for San Diego City Schools' Gifted and Talented Education Program which included a total of 90 elementary, junior-high, and high schools.

Education/Certifications

- M. A., Educational Technology, San Diego State University
- B. A., San Diego State University

Credentials

- CA Teaching Credential, K-Adult, San Diego State University

Certifications

- Universally Certified Achieve Global Supervisory Skills Facilitator
- Certified Vital Learning Supervisory Skills Facilitator

Awards

- Dual Award Winner: Southern CA Region for Community Colleges, Top Seller, Zenger-Miller Supervisory Skills Services.

Active Professional Memberships

- SHRM, San Diego: Society of Human Resources Management. 1999-present, Member
- ASTD: American Society for Training & Development, 1998-99, Mentor; 1998-Current, Member
- Torrey Pines Kiwanis Club, 2000-2004, Member; 2005, Alumnus
- Friends of Downtown, San Diego, 1998 – Present, Member